About San Jose Catholic School

Nestled in historic south Jacksonville and dedicated to St. Joseph, San Jose Catholic School is steeped in rich heritage and strong traditions. Our school has been educating Jacksonville students since 1961. The annual Golf Tournament is one of the school's largest fundraisers and is hosted by the Home and School Association. Your participation will help raise needed funds to supplement the budget, provide enhancements to classrooms, purchase up-to-date educational tools and technology, as well as continue music, foreign language, theater and art enrichment programs. For more information, please visit our web site at www.sanjosecatholicsschool.com

We invite our families, our parishioners, our alumni and all friends of the San Jose Catholic community to join us for a fun day of golf!
